Name

8. presidential democracy

Study Guide Government

Define the vocabulary word:
1.	democratic
2.	autocratic
3.	oligarchic
4.	confederation
5.	federal
6.	unitary
7.	parliamentary democracy

9. ROLE OF THE CITIZEN: Label the continuum below with the following terms: oligarchy, democracy, and autocracy

What type of government ($\underline{autocracy}$, $\underline{oligarchy}$, or $\underline{democracy}$) is each of the following?

10. dictatorship

11. constitutional monarchy

12. absolute monarchy

13. communism

14. republic

15. theocracy

Us	e your notes to tell HOW the LEADERS of each government GET POWER :
16.	monarchy (ex. King, Queen, Emperor):
17.	republic (ex. President, Prime Minister):
18.	constitutional monarchy:
19.	dictatorship:
20.	What type of government is run by a monarch with unlimited power ?
21.	What type of government is run by elected leaders but also has a monarch with limited power ?
22.	22. What type of government is run by a single political party who makes all government decisions and controls the economy in order to make people equal in wealth?
23.	What type of government is run by a religious group ?
24.	What is the difference between a parliamentary democracy and presidential democracy? (focus on voting Parliamentary:	3)
	Presidential:
25.	Circle the head of government in a parliamentary democracy: Prime Minister or President
26.	Sharing of Powers within Government levels (central and regional authorities): Label the continuum below with the following terms: federal, confederation, and unitary
	$\frac{}{}$ $\frac{}{}$ $\frac{}{}$ $\frac{}{}$
	LEAST MOST central control
27.	What person and place represents the central authority (government) of the United States?
28.	. Compared to the government above, which level of government is the state of Georgia? regional or cent	tral
29.	9. In China, the national government does NOT let its states have any lawmaking decisions. What type of government is this? (circle one) confederation federal unitary
30.	The United States shares lawmaking decisions between the central and regional governments. What type government is this? (circle one)	e of

unitary

federal

confederation